

The graphic features a central white speech bubble with a black outline, containing the text 'Rockin' Readers Quarter 1 2021-2022'. The background is a vibrant blue with radiating lines and scattered stars. Three white clouds with black outlines are positioned around the speech bubble, each with a black line trailing behind it as if blowing. The stars are in two colors: white and yellow, both with black outlines. The overall style is playful and energetic.

2021-2022

Check these readers out!

These students have been hand picked by their teachers for doing their best during reading! Nice
Work! Keep reading!

Kindergarten

Grayson is Ms. Hood's first quarter Rockin' Reader! Grayson has made so much progress in reading this quarter. He works hard in whole group and small group reading and loves to learn new words. He has great reading comprehension and vocabulary and is always engaged during read aloud time. He has completed his reading logs at home for September and October and likes to read about dinosaurs. Keep up the hard work Grayson! I am so proud of you.

Love, Ms. Hood

Silas Mixon is our first quarter Rockin' Reader for room 11! Silas engages in whatever we are reading and comprehends and retell stories with flair! He shares interesting facts with his class about what we read. Silas works extra hard during reading groups and knows how to SHINE! Keep up the great work

Silas, you rock!

Love, Mrs. Oxenford

Kindergarten

Brooks is Room 3's first quarter Rockin' Reader! Brooks is super motivated to learn to read and works hard during reading. He sticks with difficult tasks and loves to challenge himself to become a better reader. Brooks asks great questions and makes lots of connections while reading. We are so proud of you, Brooks!

Love, Ms. Russell

First Grade

Scarlett Anderson is room 9's rockin' reader! Scarlett loves stories and she has been working hard to become a fluent reader. While reading Scarlett excels at comprehension. She works hard to understand the details while reading and loves to talk about the characters. Scarlett's love for stories also shows in her writing and her art. She has an incredible imagination. Keep reading Scarlett!

Love, Mrs. Perrier and Ms. Emma

Kate Bookout is room 10's Rockin' Reader! Kate has such enthusiasm for reading new stories each day, and I'm always impressed with her blending skills. Kate's reading skills get stronger every day, because she never gives up when reading a tricky new word. I also notice that Kate is super focused on reading independently during D.E.A.R time each day. Way to go, Kate! You're a reader! Love, Mrs Skenzick

Second Grade

I am so excited to announce that Danny is our Rockin' Reader for the first quarter. During small reading group, Danny does an outstanding job of focusing and working diligently with a positive attitude. He sounds out words that he is unfamiliar with and is a pro when we practice our sight words. Often, he can be found with a book open at his seat or in the classroom library finding a new adventure. His favorite genre is graphic novels. Congratulations Danny on all of your hard work! Keep it up! Love, Ms. Roberts

Rylan is a Rockin' Reader! He already reads fluently, and he continues to work hard on improving his skills. He is always willing to read in class and in his reading group. He participates in discussions, offers interesting insights, and can quickly find the text evidence to support his answers. He really likes Pokémon books and reads it in class when he gets a chance. Way to be a Rockin' Reader, Rylan!

Third Grade

Room 8's Rockin' Reader is Iyan! He has been working so hard this quarter in reading! He engages in whatever we are reading and is able to understand and comprehend on a meaningful level. He always has interesting insights to share with his class about what we read. He is also really great at looking for text evidence to prove his understanding and answers. Keep up the great work Iyan!

Nikola is Room 7's Rockin' Reader of the first quarter! He always works so hard in both whole group and small group reading. I love hearing him reading along with our class story each week! He also contributes to class discussions and is always on task during his group! He has already made awesome growth in his reading fluency this year. Nikola likes Pete the Cat books. Way to be a super reader, Nikola!

4th Grade

Room 4's Rockin Reader is Jace Peterman! Jace is a part of OBOB and has really worked hard to read the books that have been given to him. He's even asking for more books! Normally Jace is our math rockstar but he has been rocking it with reading as well!!!! Go Jace!

4th/5th Grade Blend

Congratulations to Ruth Shultz, Room 1's Rockin Reader! Ruth is a model student, especially when it comes to reading. She is constantly focused and engaged during whole group and small group reading and is a valuable contributor to our conversations. Ruth's ability to comprehend a variety of texts is off the charts and she can easily find evidence within a text to support her understanding. You can tell she loves to read and to learn.

5th Grade

Lilly is the fifth grade Rockin' Reader for first quarter! Lilly is passionate about reading and loves to share book recommendations with others! Lilly can be found with her nose in a book whenever she has free time in class!

Lilly is also EXTREMELY excited to start OBOB and has already gotten a jump on reading her OBOB books! Keep up the awesome reading, Lilly!
