Archie is funny and bright. He is also creative and very detail oriented. He has a wonderful sense of humor and an amazing little grin. Archie can be counted on to bring new imaginative ideas into conversations. He is willing to listen to others and build upon their ideas, as well.

Archie has a unique personality and keeps the adults laughing (and pondering) his, "Would you rather have..." questions. Archie has made great progress since he's been here and has been a delight to have in room 13!
