

Syllabus for College Now through LCC (Spanish 5=College level 202—4 credits)

Spanish 202 Course Description:

Spanish 5 high school (SPAN 202 college level) is the second course of a three-term sequence (SPAN 201-202-203) designed to provide one full year of college transfer courses at the intermediate (second year) level. Each course is conducted in Spanish and they must be taken in sequence. SPAN 202 continues the development of and expands upon the five language skills practiced in SPAN 201 (see course description) through emphasis on daily reading, writing, listening, and speaking of Spanish, and on learning about Spanish-speaking cultures.

Student outcomes: Spanish 202

Upon course completion the successful student will be able to (within novice high to intermediate low ability range, and within the content, vocabulary and topics of this course as well as those of Spanish 201):

1. Learn and comprehend the topics and themes of the course through the target language (Spanish) itself.
2. Recognize cues in the language and extrapolate meaning from them and the context in which they are encountered, rather than relying on looking up words in a bilingual dictionary or requesting a translation.
3. Practice the interrelatedness of culture and language.
4. Apply learning strategies, goals, and skills of organization appropriate to second language acquisition.
5. Hear and read authentic intermediate levels of the language with understanding.
6. Speak and write the language so that it is intelligible to a sympathetic native speaker unaccustomed to dealing with non-Spanish speakers.
7. Demonstrate an increased knowledge of Spanish-speaking cultures.
8. Demonstrate through both oral and written expression in Spanish the ability to:
 - a. Express and summarize ideas based on content of appropriate level texts (written, video, audio.)
 - b. Translate communications using the vocabulary and content of this three-term course sequence from English into Spanish and vice-versa.
 - c. Explore and apply the notion of “false cognates.”
 - d. Manipulate the Spanish prepositions por and para in order to communicate the English concepts of for, through, by, to and from.
 - e. Express in the present doubt, denial, and belief.

- f. Express both the uncertain and indefinite and the certain and definite
- g. Express will and emotion.
- h. Give advice and suggestions.
- i. Give and receive orders and instructions.
- j. Describe and narrate future actions, events, and conditions, using both the indicative and subjunctive modes.
- k. Make comparisons of equality and inequality.
- l. Use negative and positive expressions.
- m. Introduce contradictions and qualifications.
- n. Self correct and practice error management by utilizing:
 - a. Spanish class techniques and Learning Strategies in oral situations.

SL.PS5.PS.02 Make attempts to maintain the attention of the audience.

All students will receive an overall (transcript) and an academic grade, reflecting his/her mastery of the Oregon Standards for Second Language Proficiency!

Academic Effort: Students will be expected to bring paper/notebook and a writing tool (pencil; blue or black pen) as well as their textbook and workbook to class each day. Notes should be taken in class to supplement text explanations. By taking notes, you are providing yourself a reminder of the material being learned. Notes are also helpful study aids in preparing for tests and quizzes.

Class Rules/Essential Skills:

- ❑ Always give every task your best effort. Strive for a good/strong work ethic!
- ❑ Speak Spanish as much as possible. (Solamente en español)
- ❑ Cooperate with students and teacher(s) in the class (¡Ayúdame!). Be positive and encourage one another! No put downs! (¡Sé amable!) Be a good team player! Be a good listener!
- ❑ Policies and procedures within the EHS Student Handbook will be followed (refer to the handbook for any questions regarding tardies, cell phones, food/drinks, etc.).

Classroom Conduct: Students will be expected to learn in a positive and active manner. Have respect for your peers as they learn the language. This class will require oral work so mutual respect is essential for positive learning. Disrespect of any kind will NOT be tolerated. In addition, any student caught cheating will automatically receive an “F” on that “assignment/test/quiz/project,” and a parent/guardian will be notified as well via email or a telephone call.

Tardies: Our class follows what is stated in the handbook. Because class is only around fifty minutes long, students should always come prepared to class and ready to learn. Students should not need to use the restroom or leave the room during class [I understand emergencies arise every now and then=)]. Each student has a four to five minute passing period so students should plan accordingly and go to their lockers to get their books, workbooks, notebooks and use the restroom or get a drink of water if needed. Don’t forget to ask in Spanish! (¿Puedo ir al baño? o ¿Puedo ir a mi armario?). If it becomes a problem, a “Thursday school” will be issued (considered an “unprepared tardy”).

Safety: Our classroom evacuates to the track area. During a fire drill, students will exit quickly in an orderly fashion. During earthquake drills or lockdown, students will remain quiet, avoid external windows and stay away from hallways and doors as much as possible.

Grading: Your grade at the end of the quarter/semester (points system) will be based on the following percentage chart:

100-97	A+	86-83	B	72-70	C-	59-0	F
96-93	A	82-80	B-	69-67	D+
92-90	A-	79-77	C+	66-63	D
89-87	B+	76-73	C	62-60	D-

Grades will be given based on:

- Quizzes and Chapter tests (if students do poorly in this area, there are opportunities to retake tests and quizzes until the progress report/report card—about every 4 ½ weeks). . . be sure to talk to me!
- Oral assessments, projects [must be turned in on the schedule due date, turned in ahead of time or have someone turn it in for you or you will not receive the points for turning it in “on time”—no exceptions], various writing assignments, formal presentations and a cumulative final exam (about 10-15% of your overall grade)
- Accuracy and completion of class work and homework
- Participation—attend class, come prepared and be an active learner!

Absences/Make-up Work: Attendance is vital because you cannot learn if you are not in class. When you are absent, it is up to you to make up all work that you have missed. As a general rule, you will have as long to make up missed work as you were absent if that absence is excused (see me before a planned trip or athletic event). If the absence is unexcused, the late work policy will take effect. Go to my “WordPress” (blog) to check out missed information (it will typically be updated daily for homework assignments, upcoming due dates, etc.).

Extra help is always available. . . come see me and we can arrange something (before/after school/my prep period/Homework Club)! If you don't communicate with me, I may not always know that you need extra assistance. . . ¡Vale?*

I hope this year in Spanish class will be enjoyable and fulfilling. Please do not hesitate to see me individually if you have any questions, concerns or problems, and I will do the same. ¡Buena suerte con todo!
