

Options FRMS Bridge Language Arts 6 2020		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
Reading Literary Text	Setting in a Fiction Text	Identify the setting of a story.
		Make text-to-self connections to visualize a story's setting.
	Characterization in a Fiction Text	Distinguish direct characterization from indirect characterization.
		Make supported inferences about a character.
	Tracing Plot in a Fiction Text	Trace the plot of a story.
		Summarize the plot of a story.
	Figurative Language in a Fiction Text	Identify figurative language in a story.
		Connect with prior knowledge to interpret figurative language.
	Theme in a Fiction Text	Read and reread a story to identify important story elements.
		Synthesize story elements to determine the theme of a story.
	Structure in a Poem	Identify structural elements within a poem.
		Use structure to interpret a poem's meaning.
	Figurative Language in a Poem	Identify figurative language.
		Visualize to interpret figurative language.

Unit LessonObjectives

Figurative Language in a Poem about the Empire State Building

Build background knowledge about a historic landmark

Interpret figurative language in a poem

Make connections to understand a poem's significance

That's Pretty Clever! Characters in The Number Devil

Distinguish between a protagonist and an antagonist

Understand a character's purpose in a story

Determine how a character can convey an author's purpose for writing

Wordplay in The Phantom Tollbooth

Identify examples of realism in a fantastical story

Analyze wordplay in a piece of fiction

Analyze a writer's choice to use idioms

Comparing Themes and Texts

Determine the central idea.

Infer the theme.

Compare ideas in different texts.

Reading Informational Text

Central Ideas in an Informational Text

Identify central ideas and supporting details in an informational text.

Make text-to-self and text-to-world connections using an informational text.

Using Context Clues to Find Word Meanings

Identify context clues.

Unit LessonObjectives

Use context clues to determine the meanings of unknown words.

Making Inferences about an Informational Text

Make inferences about an informational text.

Support inferences about an informational text.

Important Details in an Informational Text

Paraphrase the most important details of an informational text.

Summarize an informational text.

Using Affixes to Find Word Meanings

Identify suffixes and prefixes.

Use affixes to determine the meanings of unknown words.

Cause-and-Effect Structure in an Informational Text

Distinguish causes from effects.

Recognize cause-and-effect structure in an informational text.

Compare-and-Contrast Structure in an Informational Text

Recognize compare-and-contrast text structure.

Create mental models to understand compare-and-contrast text structure.

Problem-Solution Structure in an Informational Text

Recognize problem-solution text structure.

Use text structure to predict what will come next in the text.

Procedural Steps in an Informational Text

Preview a procedural text.

Follow the steps of a procedural text.

Unit LessonObjectives

Argument in an Informational Text

Recognize the claim in an argumentative text.

Identify reason and evidence in an argumentative text.

Conducting Research

Develop a research question.

Develop a research plan.

Synthesize evidence from multiple sources.

Writing

Common Spelling Errors

Recognize common homophones.

Recognize common contractions.

Apply common spelling rules and exceptions.

Parts of Speech and Modifiers

Identify the six basic parts of speech

Place modifiers correctly within a sentence

Identify and correct misplaced and dangling modifiers

Writing an Informative Essay about Nature

Gather details and organize ideas to plan an informative essay

Revise to use descriptive words

Write an informative essay with precise details

Diagnostic PostTest

TEST