

FERN RIDGE SCHOOL DISTRICT 28J Job Vacancy Announcement

July 21, 2017

NOTICE OF VACANCY

Athletic Trainer – Elmira High School

Fern Ridge School District is currently seeking applicants for an Athletic Trainer at Elmira High School.

We are seeking creative, outstanding candidates who will become members of a cohesive team. This position is under the direct supervision of the Athletic Director and Principal of Elmira High School. It will include 400-500 hours throughout the school year, depending on negotiated salary which is funded through a grant from the National Football League. Hours would be appropriated between specific athletic competitions and practices based on the amount for student athletes and the demand for these services. Schedule will be developed with administration; attendance at home football games and all fall practices is mandatory. Position performs other duties as required. Supplies and a space for administering care will be provided.

Please submit the following documents to be considered for this position:

- Letter of Application
- Classified/Coaching Application
- Copy of a valid Athletic Trainer License
