

Dear Families,

Thank you for enrolling your student in our FRSD Super Summer program. We are proud to be able to offer this program at no cost to our Fern Ridge families. The Oregon Department of Education has made this money available to all districts in Oregon. Our goal is to not only promote and support student well-being but to also provide learning opportunities grounded in student interests that can ignite and renew engagement, foster learning, and nourish in-person programming. We are excited to be offering a fun and engaging 4 week program.
