Quarter 2
2021-2022

Check these readers out!

These students have been hand picked by their teachers for doing their best during reading! Nice
Work! Keep reading!

Kindergarten

Cohen is Ms. Hood's Rockin' Reader in room 12 this quarter! Cohen has made so much progress this year, and surprises me daily with his amazing reading skills. He has mastered all of his letter names and sounds and is currently working hard on the green rainbow words. He has over 30 sight words memorized! Cohen loves to listen to stories and share during classroom book discussions. His favorite thing to read about is dinosaurs. Way to go Cohen! Keep up the hard work!

Ms. Hood

Bentley is room 11's Rockin' Reader this quarter! He knows all his red, orange, and yellow rainbow words and working hard on his green words! Bentley's favorite types of books are about puppies! His favorite thing to do is cartwheels at recess. My favorite thing about Bentley is his willingness to try hard things and help his peers try too! Keep up the hard work Bentley! Happy reading!

Lyla is our Rockin' Reader in Room 3 this quarter! She is super motivated to learn to read and always seeks out challenges! Lyla always gives her very best effort in reading groups and is very encouraging to classmates. She loves to practice her sight words and is making great progress working through her rainbow words! Thanks for being a reading role model for us, Lyla!

Love, Ms. Russell

First Grade

Calvin is our Rockin' Reader in room 10 this quarter! WOW! Calvin makes progress every day in his reading, because he has practiced and mastered his letter sounds and blends. He works carefully on sounding out words, and recognizing our current phonics skill each week. I am so proud of Calvin's growth and enthusiasm with reading each day. Way to be a reader, Calvin!

❤ Mrs Skenzick

Waylen is room 9's rockin' reader! Waylen loves to read books about animals and nature. You can often find him reading a nonfiction book. His reading skills are amazing and he continues to grow everyday! During reading lessons he is focus and engaged.

Thank you for making reading fun!

Mrs. Perrier

Second Grade

Elias is an amazing Rockin' Reader! He is a top reader in our class and is always willing to read outloud. He reads fluently and rocks his reading tests. He quickly learns new words. Elias is a great reading partner, too. He encourages and helps his partners. He has a kind, gentle manner that makes others feel good about themselves. Way to rock the reading and the partnering, Elias!

Ash is our Rockin' Reader in Room 6. During small reading groups, Ash works super hard at focusing while learning new sounds and blends. This focus has helped him to make huge gains in his reading ability from the beginning of the school year. Ash's loves books about snakes and dinosaurs.

Way to go buddy, I am so proud of you!

Third Grade

Casher is our rockin' reader in room 8! He is an enthusiastic reader who enjoys to learn new things through reading. He reads chapter books at home including the Magic Treehouse series. At school, he is a leader during reading times and enjoys discussing what we are reading with the class. He always has insightful things to add to our group discussions. He has worked hard to begin to use his reading skills to read and research topics of interest and enjoys reading and learning about animals. Keep up the awesome work Casher!

Brantley is our Rockin' Reader this quarter! He has worked so hard on his reading skills this year. Since the beginning of the year, he has TRIPLED his reading fluency, as well as made growth in his comprehension! He always reads along with the class out loud and participates in discussions about the stories we read. His favorite books are Minecraft books. He is an amazing example of hard work paying off. I am so proud of all the progress he has made already this year. Way to go, Brantley!

4th Grade

Tyler is a Rockin' Reader! He has made so much progress with his accuracy and fluency! His attitude towards reading has improved so much. Congrats Tyler!

4th/5th Grade Blend

I'm so happy to announce London as Room 1's Rockin' Reader! I love listening to London read. Her pacing and oral expression make listening enjoyable and engaging. You can tell she loves all things language arts. Her fluency, comprehension and vocabulary scores are consistently above grade level. Her skills in reading are reflected in her writing as well. London's writing is filled with details and vocabulary that paint a picture for her readers. I am so proud of you London!

5th Grade

Jack is the fifth grade Rockin' Reader for second quarter! Jack is a huge fan of Lord of the Rings and has been diving into some awesome fantasy and medieval books recently! Jack is always super excited to crack open a new book and take the dive into a new world! Keep rockin' Jack!!

Bridges

Jack is the Bridges K-3 Rockin' Reader for this quarter! He has really demonstrated huge gains with his reading fluency since school started in September. Jack has demonstrated perseverance by always working hard at his reading, even when it may be challenging. Keep up the hard work Jack!!!
