

Student of the Month: October 2023

Kindergarten
Ms. Hood

Jordan is our student of the month for October. When it comes to kindness, Jordan is a star. He loves to help his classmates with work. Jordan is great at sharing and including all of his friends when playing with toys or out at recess. He comes to school everyday with a smile and ready to learn. He is funny, responsible, respectful, artistic, and a hard worker. Jordan's favorite part of the day is recess and he wants to be a police officer when he grows up!

Ellie is our Student of the Month for October! Her favorite thing to do at school is help people! When she grows up she wants to be a teacher. What I love most about Ellie is her willingness to help others and her smile. She comes to school ready to learn and happy to be here! She completes her work while always giving her best effort. Ellie you rock kindergarten!

I love that our focus this month is "kindness" because Beau really stands out in our classroom for being kind. He notices when others are struggling and he goes out of his way to be a helper. He keeps his eyes on the speaker and nods encouragingly. He helps clean the floor, too. Thanks for your kind choices, Beau!

Congratulations to Ashley, our October Student of the Month! This month we're focusing on students who are kind to others and Ashley is one of the kindest students I know. She is always building other people up by telling them how great they are. She shows care for how the people around her feel and enthusiasm for their excitement. Ashley is also so helpful to everyone around her. Thanks for sharing your big heart with us Ashley!

Mason is our Student of the Month!

Mason has a positive attitude and a wonderful smile. He is helpful in the classroom to adults and to his peers. If someone is feeling sad or a little lonely, Mason is there to offer a hug or a high 5. He has a lot of compassion for others and shows it regularly.

Mason is working hard on his academics and is making progress. He is willing to practice for improvement and to share his knowledge with others. If they are struggling, he will try to find a way to assist them so they can be successful, too.

Congratulations to Scottie, in Kindergarten, for being our PE student of the month. Scottie has the biggest smile everyday he walks in the gym. He is so kind and thoughtful to his classmates and he always tries his best in PE. He is such a great partner to practice with. His favorite PE game so far is Keeper of the Castle. At home Scottie likes to do push ups. He wishes we could play air hockey in PE. His favorite healthy snack is strawberries. Scottie's health tip for everyone is to make sure to eat healthy stuff and not moldy stuff! Way to be such a KIND kid Scottie! ~Mrs. Herbert

Congratulations to Callahan, in Kindergarten, for being our PE student of the month. Callahan has become such a leader so far this year. He always is a great listener, follows the rules, and is kind to others. He always tries his best in PE. His favorite PE game so far is working on her striking skills with the paddle and balloon. At home Callahan likes to ride his bike outside or work on keeping the balloon up in the air without moving. He wishes we could ride bikes in PE, which would be so cool. His favorite healthy snack is yogurt. Callahan's health tip for everyone is to make sure to eat carrots and drink lots of water! Way rock it in PE Callahan! ~Mrs. Herbert
