

Student of the Month

Elmira Elementary
April 2024

Brayden

Kindergarten

Ms. Hood

Brayden is my student of the month for April! Brayden has made amazing progress this year in reading and can read over 50 sight words! Brayden is a great role model for his peers and always does his best work on his assignments. He is responsible, funny, kind, trustworthy, artistic, athletic, and a great friend. I am very proud of Brayden and his accomplishments this year. He has really come out of his shell and loves to share ideas and stories with his peers. Brayden wants to be a teacher when he grows up, and his favorite part of the day is recess.

Love, Ms. Hood

Marlowe

Kindergarten

Mrs. Oxenford

Marlowe is our Student of the Month for April! She comes to school ready to learn. Marlowe is a kind and caring student. She is an awesome helper to her classmates and her teacher! She loves choice time and is an excellent reader! Marlowe wants to be a veterinarian when she grows up! Her favorite sport is playing soccer. Something that makes Marlowe laugh is her brother Seger! Way to go Marlowe, you rock Kindergarten!

Heather

1st grade

Ms. Holzgang

This month's student of the month has shown perseverance this school year! Heather is hard working and continues to try her best and grow. She always has a smile and her face and is excited to be at school and learn! Keep up the great work Heather!

Love, Ms. Holzgang

Jensen

2nd grade

Mr. Franklin

Jensen has had an amazing month. She has been working hard on her work and is producing amazing things in class. Jensen is a good friend to her peers and is always helpful in class. For all of these things and countless more, it was an easy choice to have Jensen be our student of the month. Keep up the good work!

Tara

1st/2nd grade
Mrs. Skenzick

I'm happy to share about Tara for our student of the month in room 6! Our focus skill was honesty, and Tara has such a sincere and kind way of being honest. I can always trust her to tell exactly what happened if there's a problem at recess. I appreciate that Tara treats others well--she is interested in what people say, and she brings a lot of enthusiasm to our day. Thanks, Tara, for being our student of the month!

Mrs. Skenzick

Sebastian

2nd grade

Mrs. Johnson

Sebastian is our student of the month for April! Sebastian is friendly to everyone. His smile brings a ray of sunshine to our class. Sebastian shows integrity in the classroom by being honest. He always speaks and acts respectfully to other students and teachers. Sebastian strives to do his best and is a terrific role model. Thanks for being awesome, Sebastian!

♥ Mrs. Johnson

Leo

3rd grade

Mrs. Varozza

Leo is room 8's student of the month. He has been working hard on being a leader and showing how he can be an example to others. Leo loves science, especially chemistry. Leo has done two extra science projects this school year so far. One about Electromagnets, and one about color changing flowers. Leo is a library helper and loves working in the library. He also sings in choir! Leo has a lot of background knowledge on a lot of topics in class, which makes our class discussions interesting! Thank you Leo for being a leader in room 8!

Mrs. Varozza

Kamdyn

3rd Grade

Ms. Reynolds

Room 7's April Student of the Month is Kamdyn! Kamdyn is a great example of integrity in our classroom. She always does her best, has empathy for others, and always follows our school rules. She is kind and patient with her classmates. Kamdyn treats others how she wants to be treated. She can always be relied on to be a good example for others. Kamdyn is also a wonderful artist and writer! It is so fun to see how she channels her creativity into her projects and stories. We are lucky to have her in our class. Way to go, Kamdyn!

Nadalie

4th grade

Mrs. Hutton

Congratulations to Nadalie Wyman, our April Student of the Month! I chose Nadalie because she is incredibly empathetic and thoughtful. She checks on her peers and offers her help if they seem upset. She gives every person a chance, if not two or three. She has a huge heart and is always thinking of others first. Nadalie is super resilient too! There isn't much that brings down her positive attitude. She wants to make everyone happy and proud. Keep up that positivity Nadalie!

Love, Ms. Hutton

Leonard

4th grade

Ms. Thom

Leonard has really really worked so hard this year. From his reading and writing to his math, Leonard puts in 100% effort, every day. Leonard stands up for his friends and takes care of the people around him. Leonard has a tender, kind heart who loves learning! I'm really proud of all his hard work. Keep it up Leonard!

Hunter

5th grade
Ms. Houghtaling

Hunter is someone who defines honesty. He is a great friend, thoughtful, and so caring to others. I am so proud of him and how far he has come. I know he is going to continue to reach new heights and I am so excited to continue to watch him grow these last 10 weeks of school. Congratulations Hunter!

Love, Ms. Houghtaling

Leila

5th grade
Mrs. Nienhaus

Leila is the April student of the month in Mrs. Nienhaus's class. Leila has grown significantly this year in terms of taking responsibility for her actions and her work here at school. She has been working hard and it shows! Leila is also an exceptionally creative student. She is a master of poetry and can build a creative project out of any material or supply she finds at home or at school. Leila has a great sense of humor, is a fun friend, and an innovative thinker. Keep up the great work, Leila!

Evelyn

P.E.

Mrs. Herbert

Congratulations to Evelyn, in 1st Grade, for being our PE student of the month. Evelyn has the biggest smile when she comes into the gym every day and has such positive energy. She works so hard on whatever skill we are working on even if it is new to her. Her favorite PE game so far is doing ballet. At home Evelyn likes to garden. She wishes we could work on doing the splits in PE. Her favorite healthy snack is goldfish. Evelyn's health tip for everyone is to drink smoothies! Way to work hard in PE Evelyn!

~Mrs. Herbert

Turner

Mrs. Caswell

3-5

Bridges

Turner comes to school with a positive attitude and kindness in his heart. He is friendly to his peers and adults and is very helpful. Turner is a hard worker and puts a lot of effort in his academics. If Turner makes a mistake he is quick to remedy it. He's grown so much this year. It's wonderful to see the considerate and reliable young man he is growing into. In Bridges, we all appreciate the compassion and empathy he demonstrates on a daily basis.
