

Student of the Month

Elmira Elementary
March 2024

Romina

Kindergarten

Ms. Hood

Romina is our student of the month for March! Romina comes to school with a smile and reminds me everyday that she loves school. She is a shining star when it comes to focus, hard work, and perseverance. Romina has made so much progress this year, especially in reading. She can read over 60 sight words! She is also very respectful, caring, funny, and an amazing artist. She has many friends, and is very good at helping others with problem solving and school work. Romina's favorite part of school is going to the library, and she wants to be a police officer when she grows up. Way to go Romina, keep up the hard work!

Love, Ms. Hood

Haddie

Kindergarten

Mrs. Oxenford

Haddie is our Student of the Month for March! Haddie is a student who perseveres when it comes to getting his work done! His favorite things to do at school are reading, choice time, and P.E. Haddie is a kind student and always willing to give a hug! His favorite color is purple. Haddie you are rocking kindergarten this year! Congratulations!

Jameson

1st grade

Ms. Holzgang

The student of the month in first grade goes to a student who has worked really hard so far this year to improve in every area. Jameson has grown a love of learning that is very noticeable in his work and actions. He is always eagerly wanting to participate in the activities and learn as much as possible. Jameson has also worked really hard on growing in his self-control. I am so proud of everything Jameson has accomplished this year!

Love, Ms. Holzgang

Samuel

2nd grade

Mr. Franklin

Samuel is an amazing student who is so kind to his classmates. Samuel shows perseverance and never gives up. Samuel is a phenomenal hard worker who always tries his best. He is a creative wonder who is so knowledgeable. On top of all of that, he is a really big helper. Awesome job Samuel! Keep being incredible!

Elaina

1st/2nd grade

Mrs. Skenzick

Elaina is a great example of "perseverance" in our classroom. She loves to set goals for herself in reading and math, and loves to keep her portfolio up to date with her growth. She has grown into a super reader and wants to do better every day with her fluency and comprehension. I also see growth in persevering with a new skill that is challenging. Thanks for helping our classroom be positive, Elaina!

Mrs. Skenzick

Rowan

2nd grade
Mrs. Johnson

Rowan is our student of the month for March! Rowan has lots of perseverance and keeps working until she finishes her work. She is friendly and respectful to everyone and has excellent behavior in class. Rowan is also warm-hearted and generous to others, which makes her a good friend. We are so glad Rowan is in our class!

♡ Mrs. Johnson

Kate

3rd grade

Mrs. Varozza

Room 8's student of the month for March is Kate! Kate is a very hard worker who always does her best. She is a strong math student and very artistic. Kate is kind, sweet, helpful, and reliable. Kate also knows how to persevere when presented with a challenge, and always sets a good example for her peers.

Love Mrs. Varozza

Emma

3rd Grade

Ms. Reynolds

Room 7's March Student of the Month is Emma! Emma is a great example of perseverance. She tries her best and wants to do well. She is not afraid of working hard or taking on a challenge. Emma also has a great attitude. She has shown a lot of growth in her problem solving skills and conflict resolution. She is helpful, friendly, and empathetic. Keep up the great work, Emma! We are proud of you!

Abigail

4th grade

Mrs. Hutton

Congratulations to Abigail, our March Student of the Month. This month we're celebrating the character trait of perseverance. Abigail shows perseverance throughout her day by sticking with things even if they're challenging. She has a positive attitude and works hard to get her work done. I really appreciate Abigail's quiet presence in the classroom and her silly sense of humor. She is kind and helpful to her peers and brings a quite presence to the classroom. Keep it up Abigail!

Love, Ms. Hutton

Henlee

4th grade

Ms. Thom

Henlee is my student of the month! She is a kind, respectful, resilient leader who gives school her best effort. Henlee has worked really hard to achieve hard things in math this year! You are capable of many great things Henlee. Keep up the great work!!

Love, Ms. Thom

MOLLY

5th grade

Ms. Houghtaling

Molly is a determined student, she has overcome challenges through perseverance, seeking help, and reflecting on her decisions. Her hard work has led to success and will continue to as long as she relies on persevering and uses every opportunity to learn and grow. I am so proud of the person Molly is and look forward to seeing her grow even more.

Congratulations Molly!

Brody

5th grade
Mrs. Nienhaus

Brody is the March student of the month in Mrs. Nienhaus's class. Brody has put in tons of hard work this year and has grown immensely! Brody's most admirable quality is his out-of-the-box, innovative ideas. Brody has come a long way in terms of persevering and staying focused this year, and as a result has successfully created and presented some incredible projects. Brody loves sharing what he knows in math, and always has a unique perspective when it comes to problem solving. Keep being you, Brody!

-Mrs. Nienhaus

Paige

P.E.

Mrs. Herbert

Congratulations to Paige, in 5th Grade, for being our PE student of the month. Paige is such a quiet and kind kiddo who tries her best no matter what we are doing in PE. She is very easy going and a good partner for her peers. Her favorite PE game so far is Swamp Ball . At home Paige likes to play soccer outside. She would like to play tennis if she could choose our activity in PE. Her favorite healthy snack is fruit. Paige's tip for everyone is to not give up on something new. Keep working at it! Proud of you Paige!
